GREEKS AND TURKS IN FIGHT ON AEGEAN SEA

Greeks Take Advance Posts of Turks at Point of the Bayonet

LONDON, Dec. 13.—Only the cession to the Balkan allies by Turkey of Scutari, Janina, Adrianople and Durazzo will bring peace, according to representatives of the allies who are here to begin the peace conference on Monday next. Indications that the allies will demand the spoils of victory were furnished by the Greek premier, Venizelos, who says the reports of friction between the allies are groundless. M. Novakovich, the Serbian envoy, intimated that Serbia, if permitted to retain Durazzo, will agree not to fortify or to cede it to another nation.

Information was forthcoming today that Serbian Minister Semics to Austria was recalled a month ago, although it was not announced until yesterday. This puts a more peaceful interpretation on the case. Great crowds welcomed the envoys here and all are lavishly entertained at the British Service clubs.

Would Force Turks to Peace
LONDON, Dec. 13.—Pressure to force the hand of Turkey in the peace negotiations opening next Monday, was admitted today by Athens dispatches which state that the fighting at Janina is part of a general forward movement of the entire Greek army. The dispatches say that Greek General Sapountzakis reports that his force occupied Turkish advance posts near Visano at bayonet point. He captured three cannon and much supplies.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—A great battle is waging between the Greek and Turkish fleets on the Aegean Sea, according to cables from Athens and Constantinople. The Athens cablegram also says the Greeks have defeated the Turks at Pentagadia, fifty miles from Janina.

TURKISH ENVOYS TOLD NOT TO TREAT WITH GREEKS
CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 13.—It is semi-officially learned that the Turkish envoys to the Peace Conference have been instructed not to negotiate with the Greek plenipotentiaries until Greece signs the armistice. They will demand that Greece sign either a general or a separate agreement. News of the resumption of fighting today caused the order.

SOLONS RUSHING ARCHBOLD CASE FOR QUICK ENDING

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Only four of the ten charges in the impeachment proceedings against Commerce Court Judge Archbald have as yet been presented to the Senate court. A committee of the House prosecutors this morning began "railing" the case to permit concluding with all the charges before tomorrow night, when the prosecution must rest its case. The testimony on the remaining charges will be brief.

500 CARLOADS OF
ORANGES ARE USED
EACH DAY IN U. S.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Dec. 13.—To prevent a congestion of Northern fruit markets and a corresponding lowering of prices, W. C. Temple, general manager of the Florida Citrus Exchange, instructed yesterday to discontinue shipments of fruit until further notice.

It is said the exchange practically controls the Florida fruit crop. The order explained that 6000 carloads of oranges and grape fruit now are en route or are in the hands of Northern merchants. The country's consumption is said to average 500 carloads a day.

GRAND JURY ENDS WORK
LOS ANGELES, Dec. 13.—The county grand jury yesterday formally submitted its report to Judge Hutton and was then discharged. Judge Hutton complimented the jurors on their seal in preparing the report, which is voluminous. A new jury will probably be impaneled soon.

Down President's Tenure of Office to 2 Terms

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Representative Bartholdt of Missouri introduced yesterday a joint resolution to provide for a constitutional amendment to restrict presidential tenure to two terms of four years each, "or approximately two terms," with ineligibility for re-election thereafter.

"LIBERTY PLACE" GOES UP IN FIRE—NO FATALITIES

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 13.—Scores were rescued from the building called "Liberty Place," which was destroyed by fire this morning. One hundred occupants were spectacularly removed. The cornice fell, injuring four firemen, one policeman and four others. Several are unaccounted for. It is not believed any perished.

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—Jack Johnson was fined $50 and costs today by Judge Goodnow for assaulting a newspaper photographer.

BOWMAN LOSES OUT IN CONTEST FOR CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—By a vote of 147 to 125 the House yesterday rejected the resolution declaring regular the election of Representative Charles Bowman, Republican, of Pennsylvania. The resolution also provided for the dropping of the contest against him wherein fraud was charged. The House then voted to declare Bowman's seat vacant.

PROGRESSIVE DEMOCRATS IN SENATE SIGN PACT FOR DOMINATION OF SENATE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Progressive Democrats in the Senate to the number of twenty-seven have signed an agreement to reorganize that body through a preferential vote after March 4. This is to include the reorganization of the committees and the question of party leadership. The number who have signed the agreement constitute a majority of the Democratic membership, insuring the absolute domination of the Progressives in the new Democratic Senate. If President-elect Wilson gives approval to the proposed policy, it was said, seven other Democrats will become parties to the agreement.

The movement has gone far enough to indicate the approaching overthrow of the Democratic reactionaries in precisely the same fashion that Aldrich, Hale, Lodge, Gallinger, Penrose and Smoot, the Republican reactionaries, were put out of business and eventually the Republican party retired from power in all branches of the government.

Places to Be Apportioned
Baylor of Texas is the arch Democratic reactionary, but he retires to private life at the end of this term. His principal followers who will remain in the Senate and the positions they hold as ranking members of the minority today, but which the Progressives have determined shall be more equitably distributed, are as follows:

Tillman of South Carolina, entitled to the chairmanship of either Naval Affairs, Interstate Commerce or Appropriations.
Martin of Virginia, now titular minority leader, entitled to the chairmanship of Commerce, District of Columbia, or Appropriations. If Tillman selects the Naval committee.

24 HOUR PROTEST MADE AGAINST HANGINGS

'Frisco Crowds Came and Went but Scores of Speakers Held Their Posts

FOLLOWED EACH OTHER IN HALF-HOUR RELAYS

Protest Begun Against Hanging of Bombela; Then Against
Salem Hangings

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 13.—San Francisco's 24-hour protest against the hangings today in the Salem penitentiary continued today. Throughout the raw and foggy night speakers held fort on a downtown corner. When the meeting opened the crowd was composed of Christmas shoppers, tourists, workers, Socialists, rabbis and persons from every walk of life. Scores followed one another as speakers in half-hour relays. By midnight the crowd was composed of theater parties and others. At 4 o'clock this morning none were left but the night workers and Barbary Coast habitués, but the speakers continued. This morning the assembly was augmented by thousands of persons constantly changing until it is estimated that half of the city's population has heard the protest against the hangings at Salem in particular and capital punishment in general. The meeting may continue until 6 o'clock this evening.

The meeting which was organized by the Anti-Capital Punishment League, was first planned as a protest against the hanging of Manuel Bombela, who was to have been executed at San Quentin prison today. When Governor Johnson reprieved Bombela Wednesday, representatives of the league decided that a meeting would be held according to the plans in view of today's proposed hangings at Salem.

BILL TO CHANGE LINES OF YOSEMITE NATIONAL PARK

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The House Public Lands committee will take up, next Monday, the bill introduced at the instance of State Senator John Curtin to change the boundaries of Yosemite National Park to exclude the private lands now within the park area.

Curtin claims that under the park regulations the grazing of cattle is curtailed, and that the privately owned area should be removed from within the boundaries of the public domain.

He will be opposed at the hearing by Representative Needham, who objects to altering the park's boundaries, and who claims that the construction of a fence around the private areas would settle the cattle grazing problem.

PROGRESSIVE DEMOCRATS IN SENATE SIGN PACT FOR DOMINATION OF SENATE

Simmons of North Carolina, entitled to the chairmanship of Finance, Interstate Commerce or Commerce, dependent upon Martin's choice.

Bacon of Georgia, entitled to foreign relations, judiciary and the all-powerful committee on rules.

Bankhead of Alabama, entitled to the chairmanship of agriculture, education and labor and postoffice and post roads.

Senator Owen of Oklahoma is engineering the movement to compel a division of places of honor and responsibility.

A number of conferences have been held, at which the conclusion was reached that as the party was to be held accountable for the legislation of the next Congress proper consideration should be given in the Senate to geographical location of senators and a division of legislative responsibilities in such a way as to make the Senate most efficient and most responsive to the wishes of the people.

The small coterie of senators who stand at the top of the important committees, by virtue of that position always are made conferees on all big legislative questions in dispute. Conferees have more power in this final stage of legislation than either the whole House or Senate committee combined. The Progressives do not intend that this power shall longer be wielded by this small group of senators, who have not shown themselves to be in sympathy with the policies of their party, as voiced in the Baltimore platform.

At a conference of Democrats yesterday, the question of what to do with the Taft appointments was referred to a committee consisting of Senators Martin, Clarke of Arkansas, Hoke Smith, Owen and Stone.

MARTIN RICKERT IS HELD FOR MURDER

14-Year-Old Slayer of Father in Detention Home; Expresses no Regret for Tragedy

CORONER'S JURY BROUGHT IN VERDICT OF MURDER

Mother of Boy Defends Son—
Tells of Incidents Leading Up to Shooting

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 13.—Martin Rickert, the 14-year-old boy who shot and killed his father, Daniel H., yesterday, was today formally held for murder by the coroner's jury, which rendered a verdict that Rickert came to his death by a bullet fired with homicidal intent.

The boy still remains in the detention home where he has expressed no regret over the tragedy. He has repeatedly declared "he had no right to hurt mamma."

According to a statement made yesterday by Mrs. Rickert her son was crazed because her husband had beaten her roughly. She was apparently confronted by a great problem between natural mother love for her son and her duty to her husband and the law, but she was unable to prevent showing that her sympathy lay with the boy. She said:

"I don't know what they ought to do with Martin, and I don't know what they can do, but listen, he's just a baby. He didn't mean to kill his father. He just shot to frighten him. You see my husband was ill. He had rheumatism. Sometimes this injured his temper and when he got up in the mornings he didn't seem to have any reason in him. Yesterday when he got up, everything seemed to go wrong. He came to the kitchen and began to throw me around. Baby flew into a rage.

"Now, see what you've done. You've hurt mother," he cried. "You have got no business beating mother like that." My husband later apologized but the boy didn't know it. It was after that the shooting occurred."

BLEASE PARDONS WHITE OFFENDER

Wealthy Planter in Prison for Assaulting White Girl is Let Out by Governor

COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 13.—After declaring at a recent gubernatorial conference that he favors lynching negroes who attack women, Governor Cole Bleas of South Carolina, today paroled R. A. Richey, a wealthy white planter of Abbeville county, who was sentenced to prison for ten years for assaulting a white girl in 1910.

The governor imposed the condition that Richey deposit a bond of $5000 that he will personally appear before the governor on Nov. 23, 1913, "to receive what is then and there ordered by the governor."

ARCHBOLD IS TO AID IN GETTING JOHN D.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—President Archbald of the Standard Oil Company, came to the rescue of the House Money Trust Investigation Committee today, agreeing to assist the committee's sergeant-at-arms to subpoena John D. Rockefeller. For weeks the committee has been trying to reach Rockefeller, all their attempts failing. Archbald agreed to confer with Rockefeller and advise him of the committee's purpose and suggest that he either accept the subpoena or give a deposition.

The committee desires to question Rockefeller as to his connection with financial interests and the alleged corner of the copper market in 1907. Frank Sturgis of the firm of Strong, Sturgis and Company, former president and member of the board of governors of the New York Stock Exchange, went to the witness stand. He explained "split" commissions, and short selling. He said short selling is indefinable, asserting that its operation depends on circumstances. He admitted if a panic is raging, short selling might increase it. He said: "It is a question between a man and his conscience. Some approve of it, others don't. I approve of it in some circumstances."

NO TRACE FOUND OF MISSING WOMAN, HER FATHER TO TAKE CHARGE OF HER $800 ESTATE

Nothing Heard of Whereabouts of Miss Helen G. Whitney, Who Disappeared on Nov. 4th

No trace has been found of the whereabouts of Miss Helen G. Whitney, who disappeared from Santa Ana on Nov. 4. Her relatives believe she left while of unsound mind. What has become of her is only a matter of conjecture. Giving up hope of finding her at any time within the near future, her father, G. A. Whitney, has petitioned the superior court for letters of guardianship upon her property, valued at about $800.

Miss Whitney had a room on East fourth street, and was employed at a local laundry. That she was missing was not discovered until several days after she had gone. Her father went to see her and found that she had not occupied her room for several days. On inquiry he learned that she had not been at the laundry for the same length of time she had been missing from her room.

Today through Attorney W. H. Anomas, the woman's father petitioned for guardianship of the property. The petition states that diligent search has been made for Miss Whitney. Sheriff Rudock sent out descriptions and a photograph of her to officers all over the state, but was unable to get any word of the missing woman. Advertisements giving a description of her were inserted in a Los Angeles paper.

The petition asserts that Miss Whitney has a $300 equity in two acres and a half that has been sold under contract. A payment on the contract is soon due, and there is no one to receive the money that will then be due Miss Whitney, and it is for the purpose of receiving this money that the father asks for letters. In the estate are stock certificates worth $500, and some cash on deposit in a local bank. So far as can be learned by Miss Whitney's relatives, she had but little money with her when she left Santa Ana. Miss Whitney was 43 years old.

IS BELIEVED THAT DAVIS IS GOING EAST TO LAY TROUBLES BEFORE THE PRESIDENT-ELECT

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 13.—According to announcement, Chairman J. O. Davis of the Democratic state central committee has gone East on private business, but according to reports his mission is to lay some bitter complaints before the President-elect.

California already promises more trouble for the President-elect than any other state that went for Champ Clark. The surprising strength that Theodore A. Bell has displayed, particularly in the organization of his Democratic League, seems to threaten the Wilson forces in the state, and direct authority from Wilson himself is necessary to handle the situation.

The fury of the attacks made upon former Mayor James D. Phelan, the moment the Wilson following with one accord voiced its support for him for a cabinet position, made it apparent that there would be serious trouble. Phelan belongs to the group of men affiliated with the "graft prosecutions" who, from some quarters, suffer a relentless ostracism.

Immediately Phelan was talked of for a portfolio, the name of Interstate Commissioner Franklin K. Lane was rushed forward as that of the Golden State's favorite son. Since Lane has expressed a preference to remain where he is, these elements hostile to Phelan have been showing a marked willingness to lend their aid to "a man named King from Oregon."

Theodore Bell is unquestionably a power in the California Democracy, as has been demonstrated by the frequent party victories he has won, although he has never yet been able to get anywhere with them. His formation of the Democratic League was a keen move, and the state committee, or in other words, the Wilson following, seems in grave danger unless Chairman Davis succeeds in his visit to Wilson, as well as he hopes.

Phelan was not only an original Wilson man in California, but during the campaign he gave good financial aid, provided the state committee with excellent headquarters free of charge, and in other ways was faithful in the cause. It would seem that so vigorous a personality as Davis ought to make good in Phelan's behalf when the matter is taken up with Wilson.

However, the problem is no simple one for Wilson. It will not be the California Congressmen balking him on the tariff question that will alone be the source of California difficulties. Theodore Bell is a power who must be respected, a man who has enjoyed the confidence of William Jennings Bryan, and never refused to follow him until the Nebraska bolt from Champ Clark at Baltimore.

Forming Syndicate to Build New Opera House

A syndicate is being formed to build a new opera house on the old Tedford property at the northeast corner of Third and Spurgeon streets. The syndicate has not yet been completed, but plans for the building have been made.

Yesterday Building Inspector Roper was asked if a permit would be granted for a brick building, and after the plans were outlined the inspector said that there would be no reason so far as the site is concerned why the permit should not be granted.

It is proposed to include in the building a skating rink and a plunge. T. H. Fowler, who was one of the builders of the Bell Theater, is one of those interested in the project.

Among the women summoned by the court officer are the wives of two millionaire oil operators, two bankers' wives and two suffragist leaders.

FOUR HANGED TODAY IN OREGON

State's "Bloody Friday" Marked by Notoriety That Was Nation-Wide

FOUR MURDERERS PAID CRIMES' LAST PENALTY

Gov. West Was Not Present at Executions; Men Went to Death Quietly

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 13.—This is "Bloody Friday" in Oregon.

For five murders, four strong men were sent writhing into eternity through the two traps of the gallows tree in the old pillow and mattress factory of the state penitentiary here this morning. Col. B. K. Lawson, warden and superintendent, releasing one spring and a guard another. Both triggers were pulled simultaneously to ease the consciences of the warden and his assistant, neither knowing which spring did the work.

Thus passed out Mike Morgan, slayer of John Yorke; Frank Garrison, who killed Roy Perkins; Noble Faulder, who slew Louis Gilbert, and H. E. Roberts, who was guilty of the double murder of Donald Steward and George Hastings.

Garrison and Faulder were hanged at 11:40. Garrison was dead at 11:54 and Faulder at 11:58. Garrison made a speech declaring his innocence and that he was convicted on perjured testimony. As the trap was sprung he cried "Good-bye, everybody, good-bye." Faulder said "Hanging will never cure crime. You must get at the root."

Roberts and Morgan were hanged at 12:30. Father Moore spoke for Morgan, saying he shot his man in self-defense. Morgan died without speaking. Roberts made a rambling statement, saying he was hounded by the officers and was suffering from an accident. He claimed he never got a square deal. Both were brave and died without a whimper. Morgan spent the night praying. Garrison wrote continuously, and calmly protested his innocence on every occasion. Roberts was sullen and taciturn throughout the night, but wrote a letter to his sister, full of brotherly affection and religious fervor. Father Moore gave Morgan absolution before starting on the death march. The men went quietly to the death chamber where there were a hundred guests. Governor West did not attend the execution which he so much opposed but which he let go on because of the recent state vote for capital punishment.

John W. Taylor, slayer of A. H. Perry, who was condemned to die with the other murderers, had his sentence commuted yesterday to life imprisonment. The cases of the five men had attracted nation-wide notoriety and brought forth nation-wide protests.

MANITOWOC, Wis., Dec. 13.—That the freight steamer Alaska foundered in Lake Superior with a crew of 22, was stated in a wireless message picked up here today. Communication was interrupted before the sender's signature could be received. The dispatch was undated.

The possibility of a hoax caused the wireless officials to send a general call to all stations, which are now investigating the rumor.

BIBLE NEEDED BY COUNTRY, DECLARES MAGNATE J. J. HILL

WARREN, Minn., Dec. 13.—James J. Hill, the railway builder, delivered what he termed a "real sermon" here to a large crowd of farmers, business men and students. Mr. Hill's "sermon" was given on the occasion of the celebration of the completion of a new $50,000 building for North Star College. Declaring that religion should be taught in the public schools, Mr. Hill added:

"No nation can exist without true Christian spirit behind it, and laws that forbid teaching Christianity are the weakest things in our government. I hope to see the Decalogue in every school room."

Mr. Hertz, the proprietor of the new store—The White House—to be opened next week in the Rossmore hotel building, was in town today making final arrangements for beginning business.

Mr. Hertz has taken a long term lease on this store room, which has been in the hands of remodeling workmen for several weeks and is now receiving its finishing touches.

"The White House" will make a specialty of fine laces and embroideries and will carry a full line of white goods, including many special makes and designs. It will be operated on the co-operative plan, in conjunction with other stores owned by Mr. Hertz, giving it the advantage of buying and importing in tremendous quantities.

The advertising columns of this paper will keep the public informed as to the movements of "The White House."

MAY BRING ABSEN'S GREAT PLAY HERE

Herman Reuter has been in communication with Miss Willamene Wilkes, the head of the Playgoers' Society, of Los Angeles, with the view of arranging for a performance at the Grand Opera House, Christmas Eve, of Henrik Ibsen's great play, "The Master Builder."

The Playgoers achieved a pronounced success with their production at Cumnock hall, last Friday evening. Mr. Othman Stevens, critic on the Examiner, had this to say:

"A capacity house saw the performance. . . . In essential particulars the performance was quite equal to all that would be expected from professional actors; the work of all in the cast showed indeed a deeper perception of the meaning of their words and their roles than is often met with in stock productions. Mr. Seward played Halvard Solness, the leading part, with rare expressiveness and understanding. Miss Gertrude Workman played the opposite lead of Hilda Wangel with convincingly exact qualities of portraiture. . . . In all points the performance merited the high esteem which was shown by the audience and its perfection assures a liberal attendance at any further productions by the club."

Those interested in seeing this masterpiece of Ibsen, considered by most critics the greatest dramatist since Shakespeare, are requested to leave or telephone their names at either the Rowley Drug Store or the Santa Ana Book Store, tomorrow. The Playgoers' require a guarantee to assure them their expenses and if the theatre-goers of this city evince sufficient interest Mr. Reuter will complete all details as to arranging for the performance.

CALIFORNIA MAN PRIZE WINNER AT BIG ART EXHIBIT

Los Angeles Examiner: Los Angeles friends of William Wendt, the well known painter, are rejoicing over his having been awarded prize for the best painting by a Western artist, at the seventeenth annual exhibition of Western Artists, opened in Chicago yesterday.

Mr. Wendt, with his wife, Julia Bracken Wendt, the sculptress, have done much to foster the art spirit of this state. They were among the founders of the California Art Club.

Mr. Wendt has for several years captured prizes at the Chicago exhibition, but his painting, "Sunny Slopes," exhibited yesterday, was accorded an even greater mead of praise than any previous work. His landscapes are rich and clear of coloring, sane and true as to treatment, and imbued with the joy of nature and life.

'MOST MAGNIFICENT ERA IS NOW AT HAND'

J. M. Belleville Declares That Scientific Farming Biggest Asset of the Nation

Los Angeles Examiner: J. M. Belleville, president of the National Industrial Traffic League, which is made up of more than 100,000 freight shippers, and which exercises a potent influence on commercial affairs; also a high official of a large plate glass concern of Pittsburgh, and a railway veteran, having seen service for many years with the Pennsylvania railway company, said yesterday at the Alexandria Hotel:

"I am an optimist by nature, but after a prolonged journey all over the country I feel that my optimism has not been half way expressed before, for we are entering on the most magnificent era of good times the country has ever known.

"Back of all is the farmer; scientific farming is doing more for the country than any other one feature.

"I have a son who has a ranch in Northern California, a forty acre farm which was part of a grain farm.

"By diversified farming, and knowing how to farm, he will make more from that forty acres than the old grain farmers used to make from a thousand acres.

"The same thing is being done all over the country; farmers now know how to farm instead of, as their fathers did, going at it simply from traditional methods.

"All manner of business is good and getting better; the American people are saner and less hysterical than ever before, and altogether we are living in the happiest portion of the world's history.

"Here in California you have the best and you are going to have better; the only thing you lack here is sufficient good, honest, laboring men, and the Panama Canal is going to supply that want; I firmly believe that the half has not been prophesied of what is going to happen here in development and well being of the people fortunate enough to live here."

PUT OFF CAR, NOW ASKS $6000 DAMAGES

Los Angeles Times: According to the complaint filed by William O'Kell yesterday against the Pacific Electric for $6000 damages for having been ejected from a car September last, he caused the crew to back the car half a mile after having been carried past his station.

O'Kell said he bought a ticket to Gallina on the Santa Ana line. He alleges the car went past his station. He refused to get off when ordered to do so, and a quarrel resulted. O'Kell alleged the other passengers supported him in his contention that he should be carried back. By reason of his forcible ejection at Gallina, he alleges he has been permanently injured.

"I know nothing about any such deal and I'm not going to move," said Gary. The local representatives of Andrew Carnegie also denied that he or any of his associates were in a syndicate that is seeking the land in question.

RIVER WATER IS USED EIGHT TIMES

Santa Ana Stream Diverted for Power, Irrigation and Municipal Water

Power can be developed upon many surface streams and applied to the recovery of the water of the streams after it has sunk into the earth in the lower lands of the valleys. An instance of this character according to the United States Geological Survey, is to be found along Santa Ana river in Southern California. A part of the water of this river is stored in a reservoir in the San Bernardino mountains and the flow of the stream is thereby regulated.

After it escapes from the reservoir it is diverted through a power plant and electric power is generated. Below this power plant it is redirected and passed through a second power plant. Below this it is all distributed and used for municipal purposes and irrigation about Redlands and Highlands.

The waters that return from the irrigation are recovered in springs and flowing wells and by pumping plants, a portion of the power developed higher up on the stream being used for the pumping. This recovered water is used for irrigation about San Bernardino and Riverside.

A part of it reappears in the river above Riverside Narrows, where it is again taken out into a power ditch whose waters are returned to the river above Corona. A few miles below it is picked up by canals and distributed to the orange and deciduous groves about Fullerton, Placentia, Anaheim and Santa Ana. The portion of it that returns there, by irrigation to the ground water is once more recovered by the many pumping plants and flowing wells west of Santa Ana.

A single drop of water in its progress from the mountains to the sea, a distance of only 100 miles, may thus be used as many as eight times for power and irrigation.

Startling Methods of Stock Exchange Were Revealed by Sturgis

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—From

Frank K. Sturgis, chairman of the law committee of the New York Stock Exchange, these remarkable admissions were elicited by Samuel Untermyer at the currency and banking committee investigation of financial conditions yesterday.

First—That manipulation of stock by syndicates and pools for the purpose of inflating or depressing prices is regarded as perfectly legitimate by the exchange, if the market riggers are always careful to pay the commissions charged by brokers who are members of the exchange.

Second—That brokers deliberately hypothecate the stocks of the customers as security for their own (the brokers') loans, irrespective of the amount that has been paid on such stocks, and that as a result of this practice in every one of a dozen securities in many markets in the country, customers had lost their stock.

Third—That the New York Stock Exchange sells its ticker service to the Western Union, but will not permit the western Union to resell to any customer that it does not approve. This seems to be a plain violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

Fourth—That the commission appointed by Governor Hughes to investigate the Stock Exchange made a secret report available to none but Stock Exchange members.

Fifth—That when a Stock Exchange house fails, having converted the securities of its customers, the entire value of the member's seat must first be used to pay in full his debts to members of the Stock Exchange before one defrauded customer can get anything on account of his converted stock.

Sixth—That the membership of the exchange is the same today as it was in 1869, when the exchange did one-fifth of the business it does now.

Sole Money Market of U. S.
From other witnesses, including money brokers, it was learned that the New York Stock Exchange is the only money market in the country. J. P. Griesel of Griesel & Rogers, money brokers, admitted that the limitation of the rate for lending money in New York would stop the drain from Western banks of money needed to move crops and greatly facilitate business in sections of the country outside of New York.

UNSELFISHNESS IN POLITICS.

Liberty knows her children, and she can wait for them to recognize their kinship. Oliver Wendell Holmes one day said, "You need not be afraid of the truth; the truth is no invalid." You may treat the people roughly and ignore it, but she lives and breathes in the human spirit, and you cannot crush the human spirit, and therefore I would rather tie my wagon to a star, knowing its orbit, than trust to any sources I myself might create. We are an interesting people, we human folks. We are afraid of men who have power and use it wickedly, but we are never proud of them, and the only people we rear statues to are the men who forgot themselves and served others, and that statue will stand there as an example as long as the bronze will last, to fire young hearts forever, while the grave of the other man is trodden underfoot and forgotten and some day is a plowed field again. Its quiet crops feed the human race, and he is dead.—Woodrow Wilson.

BREAD FOR THE EATER

"Those old fashioned families which still use home made bread should profit this winter from the big wheat crop of the northwest" notes a financial writer. He goes on to speak of prices of grain at Minneapolis as very much under a year ago.

A traveling salesman said the other day that prices of flour are lower than they have averaged for the past ten years. The best grades, he said, are selling to the consumer for 75 cents to $1.00 a barrel less than a year ago.

Even though beef may yet be reckoned with game birds and terrapin, as a rich man's luxury, yet when the poor man can sit down to a supper of bread and milk, the principal elements for muscle building are at his command.

It may be said that bread and milk is a dish for children and old maids. Some men who order it in restaurants have been known to crumb oyster crackers into it, so that they may be thought to have ordered oyster stew.

It was not so reasoned on the farm in the old days, where a bread and milk supper supplied the hearty back-ground for a 5 o'clock start for the cornfield next day. A quart of milk at eight cents, weighing two pounds, containing perhaps just as much nourishment as the fancy steak that sells at 40 cents.

The writer quoted above would seem to intimate that to realize the full advantages of cheaper flour, the family must make its own bread. There's something in that too. The decline of the rolling pin and the heavier drain on the pay envelope go together.

of food stores can do well nowadays. I pass up the loaf that will crumble up in the hand like a sponge. It consists merely of air cells separated by filmy partitions of wheat extract. Buy the loaf of firm texture that suggests the careful kneading that Mother used to do.

THE INAUGURAL BALL

A protest is gaining force at Washington against the expense and inconvenience involved by holding the inaugural ball in the Pension building. This quadrennial event is an illustration of the manner in which archaic old customs persist in a manner detrimental to business.

This custom is really a survival of monarchical manners. When kings of Europe used to find the common people presuming to growl about taxes, it never occurred to cut down the bills and do the government business cheaper.

Sometimes they get up a foreign war to make the people forget their troubles in the blazing fire of patriotic fervor. A cheaper and more common device was to give some kind of a costly pageant. The people would be so dazzled and happy in enjoying the brilliancy of the affair, that they would forget all about the cost of living, although the taxes had to go still higher to pay for the display.

In the United States the first three presidents went to bed early after the fatigues of inauguration. But those simple manners were not long possible. The custom of an inaugural ball soon surrounded the incoming president, theoretically only the people's hired man, with a splendor worthy of some autocratic ruler.

Theoretically the affair has to appear democratic. Any citizen with the price can get by the door-keeper, and theoretically the son of the coal heaver can walk up and ask the president's wife for the third waltz. But he doesn't.

In the old days the custom was perfectly unobjectionable. The dance was usually held in some hotel, and it was not big enough to interfere with the government work in any way. A woman who lived on the road to Baltimore in the early days was greatly surprised when she saw three coaches and four outfits on their way to the ball.

Today the stoppage of work in the Pension office for two to three weeks, so that 5000 people can elbow their way for a look at the president and at his wife's gown, shows a degree of business sense that would do little credit to a primary school.

No cabinet slate maker seems duly impressed with the opportunities for evolving brilliant currency and finance theories that Mr. Bryan would enjoy as Secretary of the Treasury.

If it is all the same to New York, the rest of the country would be pleased to have the next news sensations from that center of interest relate to something other than murder and robbery.

Thanks to Mrs. Hetty Green's simple ideas of life, there is no danger that her custom of chewing an onion will become a society fad.

When the Turkish war is over the newspaper experts will tell us how it should have been fought.

The liberal campaign contribution is now regarded merely as a terrible

THE CRY OF THE OLD FOGY

BY L. H. KOEPSSEL

What is the matter with Santa Ana? Are we not prosperous? Is not our government satisfactory?

These and like questions are put forth as arguments against the proposed charter.

For the sake of obviating any necessity of taking the negative of those interrogations we will grant everything that they seem to imply.

Now for contrasts and comparisons. Those were the same questions asked in a Missouri town when the progressive citizens petitioned the town council to replace the oil lamps with gas in lighting the streets.

Is there anyone who would return to the days of oil lamps today? Is the automobile to be discarded for the ox-wagon?

Must we go back to the methods of teaching twenty-five years ago? The commission form of city government, in contrast with the present system, is just as far superior as is the aeroplane over the balloon. Both of the air craft fly, but who cannot see the greater utility of the aeroplane? It is under the control of the operator. How much of the balloon is? Some, it is true, but we mean in contrast.

The commission government demands that the operatives shall be "on the job" all the time. Is that not better than two or three hours a month as under present conditions? The foggy cries out, "We have prospered without scientific management; let us alone. The present method is good enough for us."

Where would be painting if that spirit had always obtained? Would we have "The Horse Fair," "The Angelus," or "Cloudland?"

Where would astronomy be if astrology had monopolized the mind of a Galileo or Newton?

So all along the line in the domain of education, arts, literature and life itself.

Shall a system of government continue simply because it has some good in it?

Shall human interest which shall be exempt from the universal rule of Progress?

The commission form is not an experiment. It is a proven fact. It is a step in the right direction and opens the way for constant improvement. To cling to past forms of government makes us as much ancestral worshippers as the Chinese were under their autocratic regime.

Editor's Note:—Mr. Koepsel seems to assume that the commissioners, under the "commission form," would give all of their time to the city. As we understand it, this is incorrect.

LOS ANGELES SLIPS A COG

C. D. Willard, in California Outlook

The proposed new charter, which would have given the city of Los Angeles a commission form of government with adequate pay for responsible officers, failed to carry. The total vote cast was about 50,000, which is called a tight vote, but which is a fairly good number for anything except a regular election. The majority was two to one against the charter—a smashing and emphatic negative.

During the past ten years the voters of Los Angeles have time after time gone to the polls on issues where progress was matched against the standpat idea, and progress invariably has won. The new charter was supposed to be—and was intended to be—a progressive document. But the people would have none of it.

One other question was voted on at the same time, and that was whether saloons should be forbidden to serve free lunches. This was defeated by a vote that exactly paralleled that of the charter. In other words, as far as figures can tell the tale, those who voted for the charter voted against free lunch, and those who voted against the charter voted for free lunch. As a rule saloon patrons and ed within about four months. Only by quick work will it be possible to put through any charter changes in time to affect the election of 1913. The essential difficulty with the present instrument is that its scheme of salaries and duties is based on the Los Angeles of 1888, with 35,000 population, instead of the Los Angeles of 1912, with 400,000 population. While amendments have added direct legislation and the civil service and other special features, the foundation plan has remained unchanged. Can this be satisfactorily altered by amendment? Amendment seems the only possibility at present. And who is to draw up the amendments?

BEAUTIFUL HAIR AT SMALL COST

A Simple Remedy Beautifies the Hair; Cures Dandruff; Stops Falling Hair

What a pity it is to see so many people with thin, wispy hair, faded or streaked with gray, and realize that most of these people might have soft, glossy, abundant hair of beautiful color and lustre if they would but use the proper treatment. There is no necessity for gray hair under sixty-five years of age, and there is no excuse for anyone, young or old, having thin straggling hair, either full of dandruff or heavy and rank smelling with excessive oil.

You can bring back the natural color of your hair in a few days and forever rid yourself of any dandruff and loose hairs, and make your hair grow strong and beautiful by using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. For generations common garden Sage has been used for restoring and preserving the color of the hair; and Sulphur is recognized by Scalp Specialists as being excellent for treatment of hair and scalp troubles.

If you are troubled with dandruff or itching scalp, or if your hair is losing its color or coming out, get a fifty cent bottle from your druggist, and notice the improvement in the appearance of your hair after a few days' treatment. Rowley Drug Company.—Advertisement.

SURPRISED HIS FRIENDS

Edwin Reeves Weds Fair Girl From Old Virginia; Bride Was Former Classmate

Edwin A. Reeves, prominent in athletic circles here since coming to Santa Ana a few years ago from Brookings, South Dakota, most completely surprised his family and friends by joining the ranks of the benedicts yesterday afternoon. The young lady who assisted him in this praiseworthy step was Miss Minnie Chilcott of Fairfax, Virginia. Miss Chilcott recently came to California to visit an aunt, Mrs. Castle, of Pasadena, and has been a frequent guest at the H. H. Reeves home, the Reeves family being friends of many years standing. Indeed the bride and bridegroom in the present romantic wedding event were classmates through grammar and high school in Brookings, and have kept up a correspondence since their separation upon the removal of the Chilcotts to Virginia some seven years ago. The youthful friendship, always warm, rapidly ripened into a deeper affection upon their meeting in Southern California. The fact that the bridegroom is soon to leave for Tulare to assume the management of his father's ranch at that place, undoubtedly hastened the climax of the romance.

The wedding took place yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Dr. J. Herndon Garnett, the clergyman who pronounced the words of the solemn ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Reeves' parents of the bridegroom. Miss Carrie Seaton and others of the immediate family were the only ones present. The charming bride was warmly welcomed into the family with whom she has always been a favorite. Mr. and Mrs. Reeves went away in the Reeves automobile for a short honeymoon, their destination not being revealed.

They will be at the H. H. Reeves home until after the holidays when Mr. and Mrs. Reeves will leave for the Terra Bella ranch in Tulare county. As soon as a home is arranged for her, his bride will also go north.

Edwin Reeves is famous locally for his football prowess, having been a team at 1911, and as captain of the H. S. team, having led his husky fellows to many gridiron victories. After graduation from the Santa Ana High School in 1911, he went to San Luis Obispo for a polytechnic course in the agricultural school there. He is an apostle of the out-of-door life and will enjoy the ranch life he has chosen. Mrs. Reeves is a charming girl, accomplished in china painting and of attractive personality. Her father, Elery Chilcott, is in the employment of the government at Washington, D. C., the family home being in historic Fairfax, Va. The young people start in life under auspicious conditions, and will have the best wishes of a wide circle of friends here and in the East.

NEEDLEWORK PARTY

Mrs. Dickinson Hostess to Past Matrons at Delightful Afternoon Affair

The home of Mrs. R. E. Dickinson which has been the scene of many delightful social gatherings, was opened again yesterday, Mrs. Dickinson entertaining the ladies with a needlework party. The nearness of the Christmas holidays was suggested in the attractive decorations of the pretty rooms. The Yuletide colors, red and green, showing in poinsettias, Christmas bells and ferns, were employed not only in decking the house but prevailed to considerable extent in the dainty refreshments from the Dragon. A three-course repast was served at 4:30 o'clock after a delightful afternoon.

Mrs. Dickinson's guests included Mrs. McKelvey and Miss Mary Cotter from Los Angeles, both former worthy matrons of Hermosa chapter. Those invited besides the two mentioned were Mesdames Bowes, Gordon, Reeves, Winbiger, W. L. Tubbs, Balderston, Reinhaus, Robbins, Barker, Clayton, True, Ruddock, Tople, Crawford, Palmer, Medlock, Norton, Thomas, Peck, Roberts; Miss Pauline Reinhaus and Mrs. Tolle of Los Angeles, Mrs. Palmer of South Dakota.

Continues Law Practice

The idea has erroneously gotten out among the people that I have abandoned my office, and do not intend to do business any more. I want to correct that error. I shall be in my office Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of every week and prepared to do all kinds of pension work. I also have ample arrangements made to take care of all classes of law practice and other business so that my old friends and patrons will find me in the old stand as above, and I solicit your patronage.

"Sunset" Magazine

The Christmas number of Sunset Magazine has the brightest exterior and the most brilliant interior turned out by any publication in many a day. The cover is a full size poinsettia in natural colors on a background of pure gold, a work of art in itself. The reading matter includes articles on Southern California and Arizona by such well known authors as John S. McGroarty, Walter V. Woelke, Walton Paxson, and others and the fiction produced by Peter B. Kyne, James B. Connolly and contemporaries is first class and up to date. The pages are embellished by sixteen full-page illustrations in four colors depicting the joys of summery mid-winter in California, drawings by Maynard Dixon and reproductions of scenes dear to the heart of every loyal westerner. The subject matter and illustrations have been handled in a masterly manner and really do justice to this glorious country and climate. To all of us who "know," this issue of Sunset is a great comforting satisfaction, but it is intended to stir up irresistible longings and sudden determination to break old home ties on the part of our brethren in the less favored east. Sunset is to be congratulated.

H. A. Brockett Will's Residue of

Day of Santa Ana

Suit is Brought to Foreclose on Mechanic's Liens Concerning Pumping Plant

This morning the will of Henry A. Brockett, who died on October 5, was filed for probate by Attorney W. B. Julian of Long Beach. Under the will the entire estate goes to Mrs. Annie E. Day of 505 East Pine street, Santa Ana, who took care of Brockett in his old age.

The petition for letters of administration states that Brockett has but one living heir, a grandson, Orr Bear, of New Boston, Ill. Before his death, Brockett made a provision for this grandson. The will directs that Brockett's body be sent to the grandson for burial.

Under the will the entire estate is to go to Mrs. Day. The petition states that the estate consists of three secured promissory notes, totaling $4200, and $125 cash.

Mechanic's Liens
Attorney F. C. Spencer of Anaheim yesterday filed a complaint in an action to foreclose on three mechanic's liens recorded against property at Buena Park owned by W. K. Fogg. The plaintiff in the case is A. Nelson, who asks $134.59 on his own claim, $78 on a claim of H. A. Walters and $23 on a claim of the Perry Company.

Sent to Asylum
Frank R. Donahue was yesterday sent to the insane asylum at Patton. As Deputy Jailor Dean was taking the man from the court room back to the county jail, Donahue attempted to escape. Dean held him on the lawn in front of the court house until help arrived.

WATER PRICE WAS REDUCED

Anaheim Union Water Co. Cut it to Forty Cents Per 100 Inches

ANAHEIM, Dec. 12.—A regular meeting of the board of directors of the Anaheim Union Water Co. was held on Dec. 7, with all members present except Director Sherwood.

Mr. H. Calkins' request for a pipe line in front of his property was, on motion of Hale, seconded by McFadden, referred to the ditch committee. On motion of Dwyer, seconded by McFadden, the pumping committee was instructed to purchase a shoe for pit No. 2 at pumping plant No. 3.

On motion of Dwyer, seconded by McFadden, the superintendent was instructed to file a schedule of prices of pipe with the secretary.

On motion of Hale, seconded by McFadden, the price of water was reduced to 40 cents per 100 inches until further notice. New rate to take effect immediately.

Application of Standard Electric Company for use of water to settle and test mains in the city of Fullerton was received and the secretary was instructed to make them the same rate that the oil companies are paying.

Our Washington Letter

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Senator Clapp, the militant Progressive from Minnesota, prides himself upon one unbreakable Senate record. He is the champion long-distance caucus "dissenter."

"It has been four years since I went into a party caucus," said the Minnesotan. "I was in a Republican caucus the first time, but never again."

"I don't believe in secret caucuses, or conferences. I think the senators and representatives are servants, not masters, of the people. I think the master should know what his servants are doing in his house—as a general rule, at least. Of course, in time of war, it might be necessary for the protection of the nation to hold secret conferences—secret for the good of the country, but not secret for the good of those taking part."

Not until a new vice-president of the United States comes into office or the Sherman family takes some action will the photograph collection in which the late Vice President took such a pride, be removed from the Vice President's room which he occupied on the Senate side of the capitol. On account of the inability of the Senate to elect a president, neither Senator Bacon nor Senator Gallinger, who have been alternating as president pro tem, will occupy the office.

No one has shown a disposition to remove the Vice President's effects from his office and the little collection of photographs will remain undisturbed for some time to come. The principal photograph in the collection is an autographed one of Uncle Joe Cannon, who was one of the Vice President's closest friends. The Vice President took great pride in the collection.

Female statisticians pointed out today that another precedent will be shattered when President-elect Wilson comes to the White House after March 4 with three pretty, accomplished and marriageable daughters, but a certain sign of ill omen was also cited when it was said that the first to marry will be the thirteenth White House bride. Alice Roosevelt was the twelfth. The first White House bride was Lucy Payne Washington, widow of a member of George Washington. She was Mrs. Madison's sister, and was married in 1811.

DODDS DIGS FOR FOSSILS

Man Who Wanted Subway On East Fourth Heard From
In the Frozen North

The Manitoba Free Press, published at Winnipeg, Can., recently published an article on fossils found in the dried beds of ancient rivers and lakes.

G. L. Dodds seems to be the chief discoverer. Dodds was in Santa Ana for three or four months not long since, and while here announced the discovery that Santa Ana needed a subway on East Fourth street. The subway has never materialized. Dodds left Santa Ana to return to his native heath in and about Winnipeg.

Something of Dodds' discoveries since leaving Santa Ana may be gleaned from the following, taken from the Free Press article:

"The valley of the Souris river in Saskatchewan is rich in relics of this prehistoric age. G. L. Dodds, of Winnipeg, has quietly been excavating for the past six months, and has unearthed a bewildering miscellany of fossils and petrified remains, which it would require experienced paleontologists to classify. The discoveries made by Mr. Dodds relate to the Mississippian and Pleistocene periods, and go back to a time of widespread submergence of the North American continent.

"The first discovery of importance made by Mr. Dodds was that of the petrified form of a great shark, which had lain exposed for many years without its scientific value being known. Scientists have examined this great stone fish, and have pronounced it to be one of the Cladocelache fyeri—sharks that inhabited the Paleozoic seas in the Mississippian or early carboniferous period."

GETTING READY FOR THE STATE HIGHWAY

Anahelm Gazette: City Engineer Steward was in Los Angeles yesterday conferring with officials of the State Highway Commission relative to the character of paving desired on Los Angeles street. Mr. Steward is of the opinion that paving on this thoroughfare should be of a more substantial character than on other residence streets, for the reason that heavy traffic will pass over it when the state highway is opened to travel through this city. He is busily engaged in preparing data and specifications for paving city streets and the city trustees will probably take the matter up at an early date.

Suits valued at $20.00, $25.00 and $27.50 now $15.00. This is your chance to get a beautifully tailored suit for about half. Come to Gilbert's, take elevator to suit department.

SCHOOL TEAM WON 14 TO 0

Seniors Unable to Hold Down
The Rest of the School in Match Yesterday

(BY VERNE SMITH)

Score, S. A. H. S., 14; Seniors, 0. This is the result of a very hard-fought football battle between the Santa Ana High School and the Seniors. The game took place at Lincoln Athletic Park yesterday afternoon.

This was probably the first game of its kind ever played at the park. Because of a number of Seniors on the first team who will graduate this year they challenged the school. Teams were picked and on account of the great feeling of rivalry between the two squads, one of the fiercest clashes of the season was staged on the high school gridiron yesterday afternoon.

Holzgrafe, the school's fullback, was sent plunging through the line for the first touchdown after the school team had unmercifully beaten the Seniors back to the shadow of their own goal posts. Morrison then kicked goal making the score 7 to 0.

The second touchdown was made by Capt. Morrison of the school's eleven after many mighty plunges through the Seniors' line men who failed to hold and stop the attacks of the school squad. Morrison again kicked goal making the score 14 to 0. At the end of the half game the game was called by the captains on account of darkness. Both teams played a fast game and deserve much credit for the great dust eating exhibit they displayed. The receipts will be given to the regular team for sweaters.

The line up at the start was as follows:

School	Seniors
Perkins	Wright
Jacques	Pollard-Briggs
Cattand	Avery
Warren	C
Wagner	RG
Irvine	RT
Jacobs	RE
Eaton	QB
Lacy	RH
Morrison	LH
Holzgrafe	FB

A BUILDING RECORD
Orange News: With the amount of building started in and near Orange last month, amounting to nearly $20,000, and with the prospect of running far ahead of that figure the present month, 1912 bids fair to be one of the big building years in the history of Orange. The public improvements completed in the past two years in Orange are doing wonders for the growth of the city in adding to its attractiveness as a home town. Much of the building now being done and proposed arises out of a demand for homes on the part of new arrivals. The News believes that an era of remarkable growth in population is now at hand. The coming of the electric railroad and the opening of the polytechnic high school will be largely contributing factors to this growth. Every hard-worked public improvement is doing its part in the upbuilding.

SAFE REMEDY ENDS CATARRH MISERIES

Gives Instant Relief, Cures and Prevents Catarrh and Cold in the Head

The quickest, best and safest way to cure catarrh or a cold in the head is by using a remedy that will "touch the spot" and do its work quickly without leaving any bad effects. Ely's Cream Balm, which is applied to the nostrils or rubbed on the throat or chest gets right at the root of the trouble and instantly relieves even the worst case of catarrh or cold. A few minutes after applied you can feel a loosening up in the head, the pain and soreness are gone, the sense of taste, smell and hearing come back, and you feel like a different person.

Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, heals and strengthens the inflamed membranes, takes away that stuffed up feeling and dull pain in the head, relieves the throat soreness and stops the nasty discharge which is the cause of the disgusting hacking, spitting, blowing of the nose, and foul breath. Hay fever victims who are miserable by fits of sneezing, coughing and wheezing get instant and permanent relief by the use of this simple remedy.

Don't suffer another minute. Ely's Cream Balm will relieve you immediately, and a 50 cent bottle will more than likely work a complete cure. All druggists sell it. Rowley Drug Company.—Advertisement.

JEFFERSON SCHOOL IS IN THE LEAD

Membership Contest Among Grammar Schools Ends at Social Tomorrow Evening

Tomorrow evening at the United Presbyterian church will be held the big Y. M. C. A. Boys' Department social. This social will mark the close of the charter-membership contest which has been in progress the past two weeks among the students of the various grammar schools of the city. The charter roll closes tomorrow night. Jefferson school apparently has won the beautiful banner to be presented at this social, this school having so far obtained the most points in the contest.

The boys of this school have worked hard and fully deserve to get the banner. The interest and rivalry between the schools has been a feature of the campaign. All the members of the boys' department are invited to the social tomorrow evening which will be held in the basement of the church, to commence at 7:30. A general good time is promised by the committee who have prepared the program of events which will include games and athletic stunts and refreshments will be served at the close.

2,000 CARLOADS VEGETABLES GO TO CHILLY EAST

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 13.—Two thousand carloads of Southern California vegetables will be shipped to market this winter season, and a considerable part of this record-breaking output will go to the distant eastern cities.

"California lettuce, celery, cauliflower, cabbage and tomatoes are favored by the chefs and the discriminating housewives of New York and other eastern cities," said J. G. Stubbs, general freight agent of the Southern Pacific, yesterday. "Each year sees an increasing demand for the products of Southern California. This year the shipments will break all records. The season which began last month will continue until March or April. Then as the snow-bound eastland begins to live again its farmers will produce these vegetables which California enjoys the year around, and most of our products must of necessity be shipped."

The vegetables go straight to Chicago, New York, Boston, St. Louis and other cities in ice cars.

A Joke Was No Joke With Him.

Men who purchase country weekly newspapers not infrequently have a desire to roll up their sleeves and do the work. Such a man, a Scotchman, was recently mentioned by E. W. Miller of Ottawa, Ill., when a crowd of writers were relating experiences they had had. This man, according to Mr. Miller, turned to the managing editor—who went down to the editorial room at 8 o'clock every morning, by the way, wrote out the assignments for the day and then went out to cover them—and said he had noticed a column of "wee bit jokies" in other papers and thought it would be well if his new paper carried such a column. "But where," he asked, "can I get a man to write 'em?"

The managing editor suggested that the owner, being Scotch, write such a column himself. "Ah," said the owner, "I ken I'm a bit brisk o' the pen. I can write up the wee bit birth notices and the wee bit deaths and the wee bit marriages, but the wee bit jokie—moor, tho' it's different. I can write bonny, but I joke wi' great delicacy!"—New York Tribune.

With Apologies of the Fraternity.
Sir John Ashley had a curious habit of speaking about himself as "Ashley" and blending the third person singular with the first person in the most unusual way. This is how he used to relate what happened:

"Ashley went to the Derby, and I'm blessed if Ashley's tucker wasn't stolen from him. As it had been given me and I prized it, I went to the head pickpocket, with whom I was acquainted, and said, 'See here; they've taken Ashley's tucker.' The man blushed. 'Good Lord! You don't mean it, Sir John?' he stammered. 'Will you have the goodness to just wait 'ere? I'll be back in a jiffy.' He was back in three minutes with Ashley's tucker, which he handed over, saying most humbly as he did so: 'I 'ope, Sir John, you'll accept the apologies of the 'ole fraternity. It was quite a mistake, and it was done by a noo beginner.'"—Westminster Gazette.

Bismarck Forgave.

Bismarck could forgive, but he wished to do it after proper solicitation. At the beginning of the Danish war Field Marshal Wrangle, who was at the head of the Prussian troops, was exceedingly annoyed at one point to be telegraphed not to advance farther, and he returned a message telling King William that "these diplomatists who spoil the most successful operations deserve the gallows." After that Bismarck ignored him completely, and one day they met at the king's table, where it was especially awkward to preserve a coldness. Wrangle called everybody "du," and presently he turned to Bismarck, who was seated next him, and said, "My son, canst thou not forget?" "No," was the curt reply. After a pause Wrangle began again, "My son, canst thou not forgive?" "With all my heart," said Bismarck, and the breach was healed.

Doctors and Mustaches.

English doctors who grew mustaches once ran the risk of spoiling their practice. G. W. E. Russell in "One Look Back" remarks: "Quite certainly the first time I ever fell into the hands of a mustached doctor was in 1877. Every one condemned the hirsute appendage as highly unprofessional, and when soon after the poor man found his way into a lunatic asylum neighboring doctors of the old school said they were not surprised—that there was a bad family history and that he himself had shown signs of eccentricity. That meant the mustache and nothing else."

"Conspicuous by Absence."
Tacitus, the great Roman historian, was the originator of the phrase, "Conspicuous by his absence," when, describing the funeral of Junia in his "Annales," he said the images of her famous kinsmen, Brutus and Cassius, shone by their absence. Lord John Russell popularized the phrase in England in 1859 by saying of Lord Derby's reform bill, "One provision is conspicuous by its presence, another by its absence."
